

Public Forum Question and Response

Subject: Community Centre Strategy

Question From: Mr Vincent De Luca

Meeting Date: 24th August 2004

Question: Could Council please advise:

Who is managing/researching and writing the Community Centre Strategy?

Response: The Manager Cultural and Community Services advised that Council's Strategy and Policy division is developing the Community Centre Strategy.

Question: What consultation has been held with Community Centre Management Committees to date?

Response: The Manager Cultural and Community Services advised that initial consultation took place as part of an information session attended by committee representatives in May 2003. The draft strategy is currently under development and will shortly come before Council for adoption, after which it will enter the next consultation phase and will be presented to the public for comment in accordance with Council's Consultation Policy.
